Sought After Location, Must Be Sold

Set in a tightly-held pocket of Concord with unobstructed golf course views and also water views, this property offers the perfect setting to renovate or rebuild.

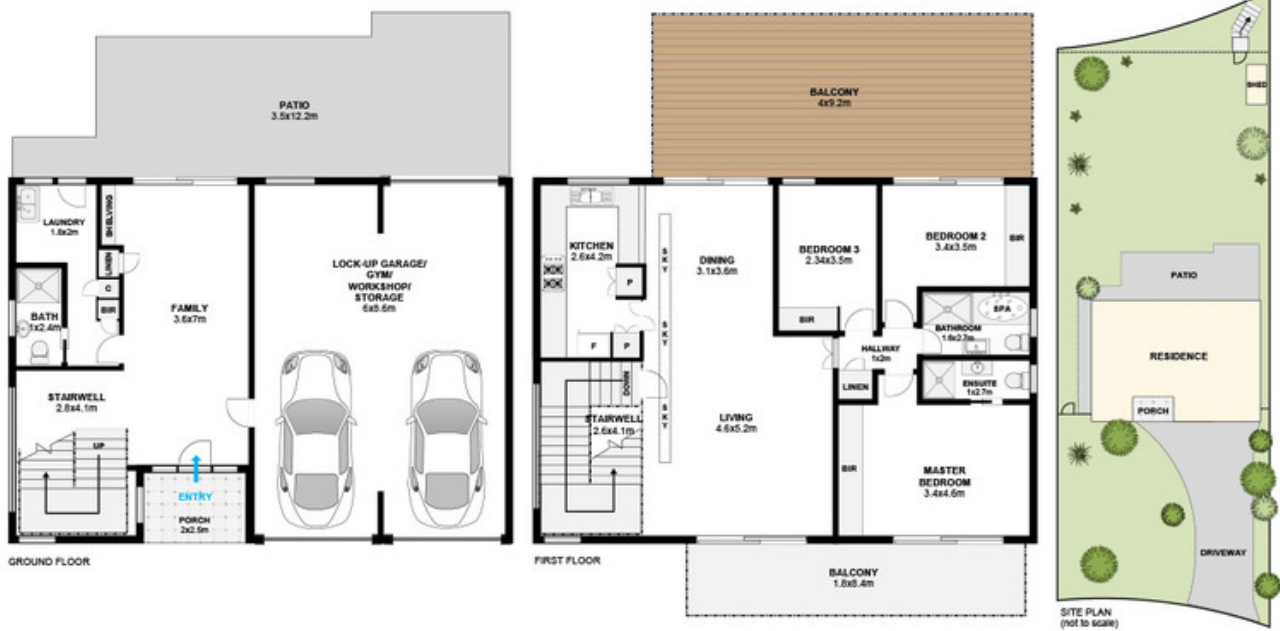

Nestled on an impressive 15.24m frontage and 537.5sqm block this architecturally designed home presents three large bedrooms all with built in wardrobes, the main with an ensuite, open living and dining with original kitchen. There is also an entertainer's balcony overlooking Barnwell Park Golf Course and water glimpses across the bay. Furthermore the home is also equipped with a large double garage with storage and a generous back garden.

Enviably positioned in this sought after pocket of Concord just a short walk to Bayview Park and boat ramp via a safe path from the home and just moments to shops, schools, parks and transport, this private sanctuary provides endless potential to renovate or rebuild your dream home.
