This expansive and unparalleled, sun filled double storey five bedroom family home, showcases both sophistication and style through its triumph of modernity and designer finishes. Situated in the beating heart of the picturesque suburb of Lidcombe is this secluded and private family haven, perfect for all walks of life. Enthralled by intimate high quality interiors and exteriors makes this the perfect place to call your next home. It is safe to say that this property will not remain on the market for very long. It's quiet tree-lined street locale offers excellent convenience and is within close proximity to parklands, Lidcombe train Station (10 Minute Walk) and dining and restaurant district.
